

San Miguel Corporation - Key Executives & Heritage Leaders

Other Key Executives

Ferdinand K. Constantino - Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

Ferdinand Constantino is the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of San Miguel Corporation. As CFO, he takes care of the company's finances, including budgeting, tracking expenses, and making sure the business stays profitable and stable. His experience helps guide smart financial decisions for San Miguel's long-term growth.

Monica L. AngMercado - Chief Financial Officer (CFO) & Chief Risk Officer (CRO)

Monica Ang-Mercado plays a dual role as both Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and Chief Risk Officer (CRO). She helps manage the company's money while also identifying and handling risks that could affect the business. As CRO, she makes sure San Miguel is ready for any financial or operational challenges.

Carlos A. Berba - Chief Operating Officer (COO), Beer Division

Carlos Berba is the Chief Operating Officer (COO) for San Miguel's Beer Division. He is responsible for running the beer business—from making the products to getting them to customers. He oversees popular brands like San Miguel Pale Pilsen, keeping the beer operations strong and successful.

Emmanuel B. Macalalag - Chief Operating Officer (COO), Food Division

Emmanuel Macalalag is the COO of the Food Division. He manages the production and distribution of food products like poultry, meat, flour, and dairy under San Miguel Foods. His role is to make sure that high-quality food reaches customers across the country.

Heritage Leaders

Heritage Leaders are the important figures in the early history of San Miguel Corporation (SMC). They helped build and shape the company into what it is today. These leaders laid the foundation, created its values, and pushed the company to grow in its early years.

Enrique Mara Barretto - Founder of San Miguel Corporation

San Miguel Corporation - Key Executives & Heritage Leaders

Enrique Mara Barretto founded San Miguel Corporation (SMC) in 1890. He opened the first brewery in Southeast Asia, called La Fbrica de Cerveza de San Miguel, in Manila. His vision and efforts marked the beginning of one of the Philippines' most iconic companies.

Andrs Soriano Sr. - Expansion Leader

Andrs Soriano Sr. took San Miguel to the next level. Under his leadership, the company expanded from beer to new industries like dairy and soft drinks. He was a true visionary who turned San Miguel into a diversified business group known across Asia.

Eduardo 'Danding' Cojuangco Jr. - Former Chairman and Visionary Leader

Eduardo 'Danding' Cojuangco Jr. served as the long-time Chairman and CEO of San Miguel Corporation. Under his leadership, SMC experienced major expansion and diversification, entering industries like energy, infrastructure, and telecommunications. He played a key role in turning San Miguel into one of Southeast Asia's largest and most diversified conglomerates. His bold vision and strategic decisions had a lasting impact on the company's direction and legacy.